

City of Alhambra, California
Police Chief

Characterized by charming, well-manicured residential neighborhoods and a growing number of businesses, the City of Alhambra (population 83,000) is a premier family-oriented and economically prosperous community located just eight miles east of downtown Los Angeles in the San Gabriel Valley. The City is seeking a Police Chief who will be a strong and committed leader that commands respect from his/her staff, while fostering and promoting change to enhance the efficiencies and capabilities of those within the department. Graduation from an accredited college or university with a Bachelor's degree in criminal justice, public administration, or a related field is required; a Master's degree and completion of Command College or FBI National Academy are highly desired. Candidates must possess ten years of increasingly responsible law enforcement, crime prevention, and community oriented policing experience, as well as three years as a Police Captain or equivalent. Possession of California POST Management Certificate is required and all candidates must be current in California POST mandated training for the position. The salary range for the Police Chief is competitive and dependent upon qualifications.
